

Intermodal Transport Development Project in the Southern Philippines

*Ides Inc. participated in this Project as an associate member of the main contractor.

Project Outline

Client: Asian Development Bank

Period: July, 2005-May, 2006

Objective: With an aim to promote intermodal transport in Visayas and Mindanao Regions, ports and airports for priority development were selected. Infrastructure development plans were prepared and preliminary evaluation of the feasibility of the plans were carried out

Main Activities

Assigned fields: Port engineering expert

Summary of activities:

- Analysis of the logistics net work within the Philippines
- Selection of priority routes for development in the basis of above analysis
- Selection of ports for priority development along the priority routes
- Demand forecast of the selected port (General Santos and Zamboanaga Ports)
- Preparation of development plan, facility design, cost estimate, implementation plan
- Economic and financial analyses

