

The Project for the Study on Strengthening Competitiveness and Development of Sihanoukville Port in the Kingdom of Cambodia

* Ides Inc. participated in this Project as a partner of a joint venture company.

Project outline

Client: Japan International Cooperation Agency

Period: 2011/6-2012/6

Objective: To develop future vision for strengthening the competitiveness of Sihanoukville Port (target year 2030 and 2020), and to develop strategies and long/mid-term development plans for its realization.

Main activities

Assigned fields: Port planning, port management, economic analysis, financial analysis, environmental impact assessment

Summary of activities:

- Development of long/mid-term port development plans
- Development of port service improvement plan
- Proposition of port management and financial strategies
- Implementation of baseline environmental surveys (water, sediment, terrestrial flora/fauna, coral)
- Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA) of port development plan
- Public consultation
- Development of port environment improvement plan

