

The Study on Pecem Industrial and Port Complex Development Plan in the Federal Republic of Brazil

* Ides Inc. participated in this Project as a leader of a joint venture company.

Project Outline

Client: Japan International Cooperation Agency

Period: February, 2005-March, 2006

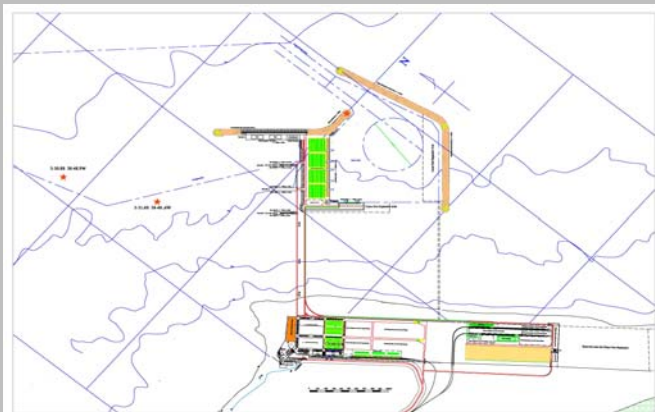

Objective: Implementation of a survey related to the basic development strategy of CIPP (Complexo Industrial e Portuario do Pecém) and other industrial estates in the vicinity of it. Preparation of a long-term (up to 2020) and a short-term (up to 2012) development plans of Pecém Industrial Port within the framework of the basic development strategy. Feasibility evaluation of the short-term development plan.

Main Activities

Assigned fields: Leader, Port planning, Demand forecast, Industrial development, Maritime transport/transport planning, Economic and financial analyses, Port administration/operational plan, construction plan/cost estimate

Summary of activities:

- Examination of the development strategy of CIPP
- Elaboration of port development plan to implementation of development strategies of CIPP
- Capacity evaluation of land access and international shipping service routes.
- Preparation of long and short-term development plan of the port and the feasibility evaluation
- Proposal of upgrading port related services, Port management and financial strategy
- Impact assessment of the project and assistance of holding stakeholders meeting

Pecém Industrial Port Development Master Plan

(Source: Report of Pecém Industrial Port Development Study, JICA, March 2006)